"There is music wherever there is harmony, order, or proportion"; . . . although a few of our school days seemed more discordant than harmonious, when we recall them many a cheerful note will return.

Best of luck.
To a real nice girl.
Good luck in band
next year. Remember all the good times we had in band.

Senior

On November 18 and 19 the Senior Class presented the well-known play, "Cheaper by the Dozen." Written by Frank and Ernestine, two of the twelve Gilbreth children, the play relates the many trials experienced by a large family in the 1920's. The situations that arise because of the father's strictness create the amusing, heartwarming—sometimes sad—plot.

Mrs. Dorothy Cline directed the play with the assistance of Mr. Delvin Burns. The student directors were Carol Elechko, Marsha Timko, and Nancy O'Day. Miss Maud-ellen Skene and Linda Moran were in charge of make-up. This year's senior play was enjoyed by one of the largest audiences ever attending a play at William Penn.

PRESIDENT: JUDIE CARL
VICE-PRESIDENT: FRANK COLONNA
SECRETARY: CAROL MELVIN

Judie Carl Frank Colonna Carol Melvin

BUSINESS MANAGER: CECILIA MORGAN

Under the capable leadership of its officers, Judie Carl, president; Frank Colonna, vice-president; Carol Melvin, secretary; and Bunny Morgan, business manager, the Junior Class prospered this year.

Their numerous projects included the sale of fruitcakes for both Thanksgiving and Christmas, and Easter cakes and Mother's Day cakes for these holidays. Also they received the profits from the two William Penn pen and pencil machines. These profits will be used for the class in their senior year.

The junior play was again presented under the able leadership of Mr. Jack Graybeal on April 21 and 22.

Mr. John May and his staff of advisors—Mr. Barr, Mr. Britton, Miss Skene, Mrs. Ryan, Mr. Tomlinson, Mr. Wood, Mrs. Gibson—are to be congratulated for their fine accomplishments in leading and guiding the junior class this year.

Football

The William Penn Colonials, despite the lack of size and speed, had a successful season. The Colonials placed third in the Blue Hen Conference, winning six games and losing only three.

The Colonials placed three players on the Blue Hen Conference Team and two players on the All-State Team. They climaxed the season by defeating De La Warr High School and winning the trophy donated by the Wilmington Manor Lions Club.

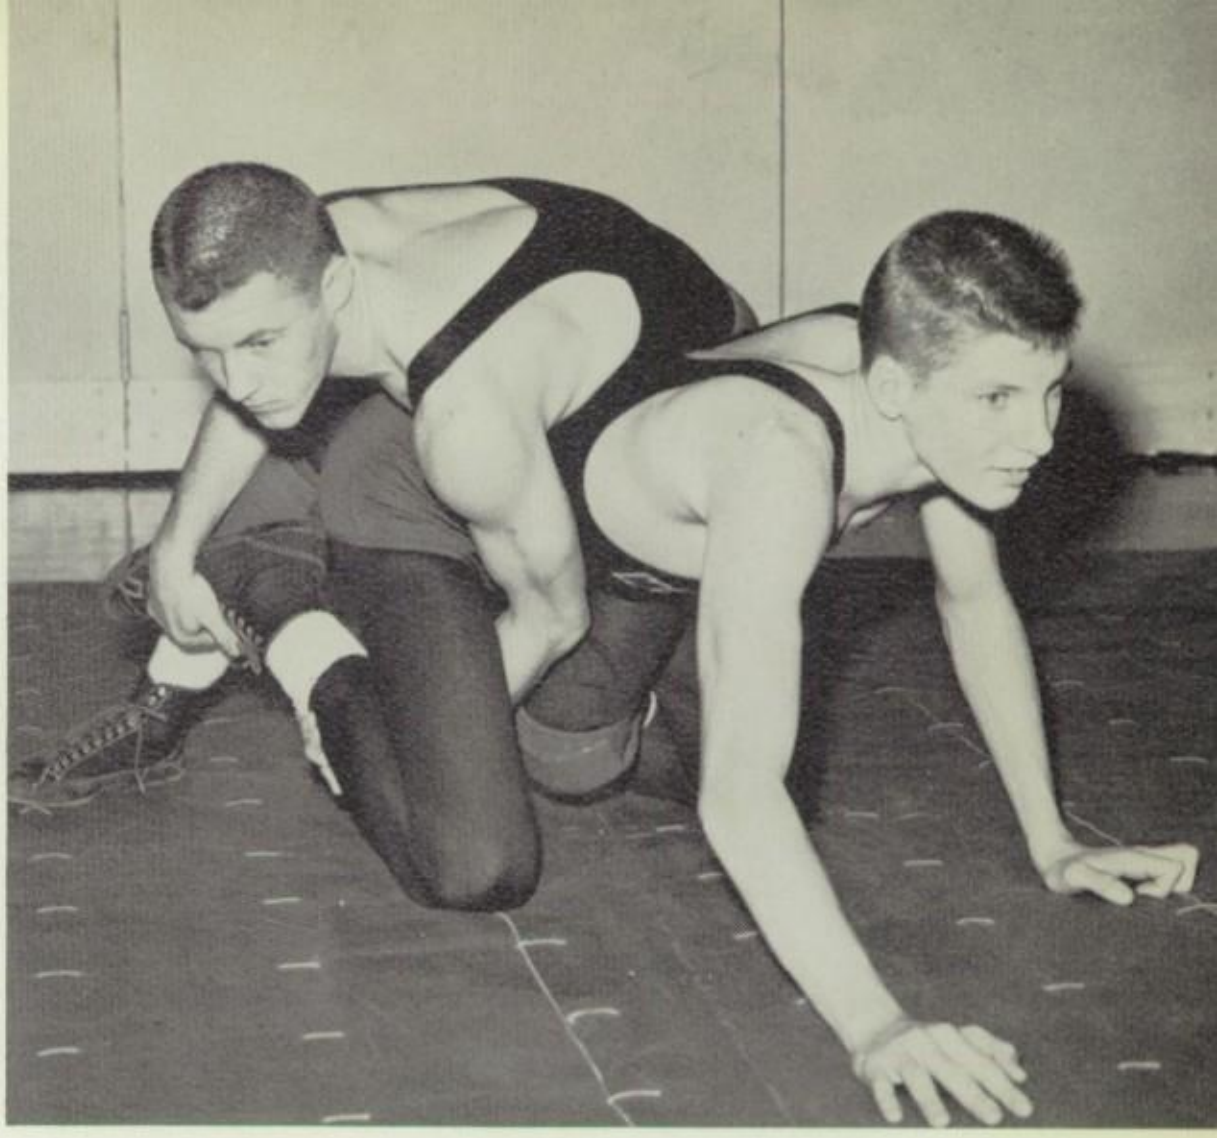
March 10th & 11th State Wrestling Tournament Univ. of Delaware



Warren Thompson and Eric Engberg

This year was the most successful the wrestling team has had. Led by Captain Jim Wightman, under the coaching of Mr. Otis Chapman, the team emerged with a record of eight wins and one loss. Sharing the first place honors with Newark and Brandywine, the Colonials also produced two conference champions: Bill Ford and Jim Wightman. For the second year Bill Ford won the state championship in his own weight class.

Diana Adams, Linda Heckman, Roseann Woytko, Sue Mace, Marge Gonzalez, Shirley Thomas, Helen Wavrinevich, Carol Melvin, Bunny Morgan, Judy Sobieski, Bonnie Veazey.

Girls' Basketball

Under the direction of its new coach, Miss Ellen Eisenhower, the girls' basketball team worked diligently to end the season successfully with four wins and four losses. Because of the efforts of Co-captains Helen Wavrinevich and Shirley Thomas, the team spirit was kept at a high level.

Activities

Senior Dinner Dance

Thursday, March 16, 1961, will long be remembered by all seniors as an enjoyable evening spent at the Gold Ballroom of the Hotel Du-Pont. About 175 people attended the affair. Sam Keel, Senior Class president, welcomed the class and gave the invocation. After dinner, the Seniors danced to music provided by the Serenaders. The dance marked a milestone toward the final goal of each senior—graduation.

Instrumental Music

The Symphonic Band gave fine performances in both the Christmas and spring concerts. Also there was an exchange performance with the Wicomico High School Band from Salisbury, Maryland.

The officers of the Senior Band were Jon Huston, president, and Joe Bell, vice-president. The Junior Band officers were Charles Fry, president, and Jack Bentham, vice-president.

The Dance Band played at the Student Council spaghetti dinner and at Banbo's Cabaret.

DANCE BAND

Stage Craft

The Stagecraft Club is instrumental in the success of the various stage productions held at the school. Under the leadership of Mr. Robert Benson, the boys learn how to build sets and manage lights and sound in the auditorium.

Library Aides

The girls of the Library Aides Club assist Mrs. Katherine Armstrong, in carrying out the many responsibilities of a librarian. While learning the functions of the library, they are also providing a valuable service to the school.

Fire Patrol

The boys of the fire patrol, an important service organization of the school, are in charge of regulating student traffic from their various assigned posts during the fire drills and emergencies. Guided by Mr. Charles Bleakney, these boys perform their responsibilities capably and efficiently.
